1 Years' Worth of Cookies

Donated By:
Vicki Wagner

After over 10 years of being on our live auction, don't miss out on bidding for Vicki Wagner's years' worth of cookies for the very last time! Vicki will freshly bake three dozen gourmet cookies that will be delivered right to your doorstep every single month for an entire year. Just be careful who you let answer the door! And what about those people who are hard to buy for? You can even purchase this auction item to give a gift (think Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day and Birthdays). And don't forget, if you wrap them properly, cookies can be frozen for those "emergencies" - cravings or otherwise!

5 Seven-Day Hawaiian Holiday on the Big Island

Donated By:
Marcie Miller

Get those bathing suits and flip flops back out because you are going to experience the spirit of aloha! A gorgeous and private two-bedroom home on the lush Hamakua Coast will spoil you with the breathtaking 180° ocean views. This property allows you to just sit back and relax on the lanai or easily take advantage of all the attractions the Big Island has to offer. Hiking, ATV tours, and horseback riding are within walking distance while the historic town of Honoka'a is just a short drive away. A hop, skip and jump will bring you to the overlook of the revered Waipio Valley, with its spectacular views, thundering waterfalls and black sand beach. And don't miss the unique opportunity to catch a glimpse of the whales from the deck as they visit the Big Island each winter!

6 The Snowblower!

Donated By:
Dr. John & Deb
McInerney

Dr. John and Deb McInerney and Steve Schaefer from Meyer Hardware are making your winter a little bit easier! There is no need to hire-out snow removal when you have the Toro Power Clear 721 E Single-Stage 21-inch Gas Snow Blower. Equipped with the powerful 212 cc 4-cycle OHV engine, this snow blower can launch snow up to 35 feet away (how fun does that sound?) while the patented Power Curve system cleans down to the pavement clearing compacted snow for optimal snow removal. Engineered to start with the push of a button and to move without heavy pushing, this machine moves more snow in less time without clogging. Toro has a 2-year Guaranteed to Start Promise and warranty. You'll be glad you have this snowblower with winter right around the corner!

8 "First Snow of the Year" by Jesse Crock

Donated By:
Jesse Crock

Many of you already know Jesse Crock—or at least know his work which is featured on many of the murals around town, particularly on the Mountain Toad building, the back of Miner's Alley and Vital Outdoors, and on the side of the Golden Moon Speakeasy. He is a Golden, Colorado-based artist and elementary art teacher whose artwork reflects the playfulness and energy of his students. Being an outdoor enthusiast, he draws the viewer's eye to places that are not often painted. Now you have a chance to purchase one of his latest original paintings of Castle Rock titled "First Snow of the Year" to proudly display and admire on your own wall!

10 Guy Hill Schoolhouse Holiday Party During Candlelight Walk

Donated By:
Golden History
Museum, GoFarm,
Diamond T Svc

For 30 years, Golden's Candlelight Walk has been a traditional favorite. Holding a candle and singing holiday songs, everyone walks down Washington Avenue from 15th Street in front of Foothills Art Center to 10th Street, where Santa and the Mayor will help "light the lights" of our beautiful town on Friday, December 1, 2017. Following the evenings events, proceed to Golden History Museum's historic Guy Hill Schoolhouse - the original one-room schoolhouse built around 1876, the same year Colorado became a state, for your privately decorated and catered party for 20 of your closest friends. Go Farm, Golden's sustainable farming cooperative, will provide outstanding food and decor which will be generously paid for by Diamond T Services. The venue is donated by the Golden History Museum. Make this holiday one to remember!
